Wauneta Library News

Happy Fall, Y'all! Well, the weather has turned, and I hope I'm not the only one who is thrilled it's finally Fall! We have some lovely decorations in the library, our Halloween spooky selections rack is set up and I have donated a handful of Stephen King and Dean Koontz books from my personal collection to add to the horror genre. If you like scary reads, it's a great time to come in! I have also added a wonderful book to our collection from a North Dakotan author, Cheryl Erickson called Missionary Pumpkins. If an uplifting, heart-warming, true story of faith and giving is more your speed, this is a book you definitely won't want to miss.

I'd like to send out an extra warm thanks to Jennifer DeWester and Amanda Pankonin for their generous donations of fall themed decor and mini gourds and pumpkins. It's gifts like these that put a smile on our patrons faces. You are so appreciated.

Wishing you all pumpkin spiced thoughts and flannel-soft coziness,

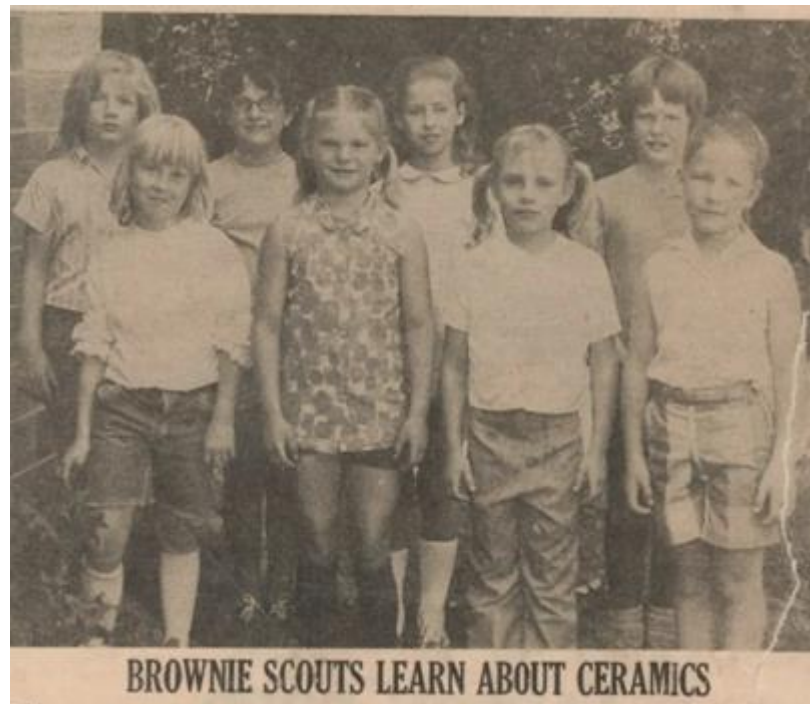

Amanda
